We want to help you build or rebuild your credit! With responsible use of an MB Secured Mastercard® Credit Card, you can create a positive credit history.

What is a Secured Credit Card?

A secured card requires a refundable security deposit that becomes the credit line for that account. For example, if you deposit $500, your available credit line will be $500. Unlike a prepaid or debit card, your secured credit card will build a credit history with the major credit bureaus.

How will the Secured Credit Card build my Credit History?

Like our traditional credit cards, as you use your MB Secured Credit Card, you will be making payments each month and your payment activity is reported to the three major credit bureaus. So your on-time payments and responsible use can help build your credit positively.

Here's a tip for Making a Deposit

If you get a tax refund each year, a great way to boost your credit is to use those funds for a secured credit card. Then keep the card active and make timely payments each month.
